St. James's, October 30, N. S.

THIS being the Anniversary of His Majesty's Birth-Day, His Majesty received at Noon the Compliments of the Nobility, foreign Ministers, and other Persons of Distinction. At Night there was a Ball. The Appearance was at both Times very numerous, and extremely splendid. On this Occasion the Guns in the Park and at the Tower were fired, and in the Evening there were Bonfires, Illuminations, and other publick Demonstration of Joy throughout London and Westminster.

Paris, Nov. 5, N. S. M. Canelle, Ambassadour in Ordinary to this Court from the Republick of Venice, having had his Audiences of Leave of their most Christian Majesties, and made his Visits to the Princes and Princesses of the Blood, as usual; will set out from hence in a few Days upon his Embassy to Rome. The King has appointed a Commission for putting an End to the Affair between the Count d'Orval and the Marquess de Bethune, relating to the Inheritance of the late Duke de Sully. The 29th past the King came from Rambouillet to Versailles. On the 31st past his most Christian Majesty touched for the King's Evil, in the Chapel of Versailles. The Son of the late President Lamoignon succeeds him in the Dignity of President a Mortier of the Parliament of Paris.

London, October 29.

Yesterday Sir Richard Brocas, Kt. Lord Mayor Elect for the Year ensuing, was sworn at Guildhall; when the Chair and other Ensigns of Mayoralty were surrendred to him in the accustomed Manner.

This Day the new Lord Mayor, accompanied by the Aldermen, Recorder, and Sheriffs, in their Scarlet Gowns, went in their Coaches to the Water-Side, the Sword and Mace being carried before them, and the City Officers attending; and from thence proceeded in the City Barge, attended by the several Companies in their respective Barges adorned with Streamers and Pendants to Westminster; and having walked round the Hall and solemnly saluted all the Courts, they went to the Exchequer Bar, and the Lord Mayor did there take the Oaths appointed, and having recorded Warrants of Attorney in the proper Courts, returned by Water to Black-Friers, and from thence in Coaches with the usual Solemnity to Guild-hall, where a magnificent Entertainment was provided, at which were present the Great Officers of State, divers of the Nobility, Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, the Judges, and other Persons of Quality and Distinction.

Whitehall, October 30, 1729.

Whereas some Persons on or about the 24th Day of August last, did maliciously strip and utterly destroy several Trees, which were planted in an Avenue to the Right Honourable the Earl of Shelburne's House at Wycomb in the County of Bucks: His Majesty, for the better Discovery of the Persons concerned in the said Crime, is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them who shall discover his Accomplices, so as they or any one of them be apprehended and convicted thereof. HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a further Encouragement for such Discovery, the Earl of Shelburne will give a Reward of Forty Pounds to any Person or Persons whatsoever making such Discovery, to be paid by Mr. Alderman Child, Banker, in Fleet-street, London, upon the Conviction of one or more of the said Offenders. SHELBURNE.
